Den Chief Responsibilities:

- Knows the purposes of Cub Scouting.
- Helps Cub Scouts advance through Cub Scout ranks.
- Encourages Cub Scouts to join a Boy Scout troop when eligible to cross over.
- Assists with activities in the den meetings.
- Sets the example for cub scouts to follow, and wears the scout uniform correctly.
- Regularly attends and helps out at den meetings and pack meetings.
- Meets and openly communicates with adult members of the den, pack, and troop as necessary.
- Lives by the Scout Oath and Law, and shows Scout spirit.
- Obtains a "Leadership Report" from the den leader (see page 2 of this Agreement) at the end of the leadership term (generally 6 months), immediately prior to the next Troop 640 youth leadership election, or upon request from the Scoutmaster, whichever occurs first.

Boy Scout Acceptance
I understand and agree to perform the Den Chief responsibilities listed above. I understand I will not fulfill my leadership requirement (as necessary for rank advancement) if I do not perform the Den Chief responsibilities to the satisfaction of the Den Leader and/or the Scoutmaster. I have completed the online Den Chief Training offered by Boy Scouts of America at: http://www.scouting.org/Training/Youth/DenChiefTraining.aspx * and my printed completion certificate is attached to this Agreement. I am aware that a "Den Chief Handbook" is available at the Denver Scout Shop. * You do not have to log in – click "next" at the bottom of the first training slide.	Boy Scout Signature and Date:
Boy Scout Parent/Guardian Acceptance
I am aware of the Den Chief role my boy scout is accepting and the importance of that role to both the Cub Scout Den listed above and my scout's leadership opportunities in Troop 640. I will encourage and help facilitate his performance of his Den Chief responsibilities.	Parent/Guardian Signature & Date:
Pack Acceptance
I accept this Boy Scout to serve as Den Chief. I am aware that I share responsibility with the Den Chief to ensure open communication between the Den Chief, myself, and pack leadership. I will familiarize myself with a Den Chief's roles, responsibilities, and expectations* so that I can provide the Den Chief and my den with opportunities to obtain the maximum benefit of Den Chief leadership. * The Den Chief Handbook (available at the Denver Scout Shop) will help familiarize a Den Chief's roles, responsibilities, and expectations.	Den Leader Signature & Date:
I am aware that the above listed den, den leader, and Boy Scout are entering into a Den Chief agreement. I am also aware that the Den Chief can assist at pack meetings.	Cubmaster Signature & Date:
Troop Approval
I recommend this Boy Scout to serve as a Den Chief. I have talked with him about the responsibility of this role and about how serving as a den chief is a privilege, a challenge, and an excellent opportunity for leadership development.	Scoutmaster Signature & Date:
